Time	The time frame put for this project is 3 months, which is not enough to finish all the project requirements.
Development Environment setup	The setup of the environment where a large number of external libraries and virtual development environment for this particular web-based system. In addition to the server configuration.
Limited number of users in Evaluation	During evaluation of this project, the number of Middle Eastern users available to contact at the university is limited. Therefore, the user sample is small.
Deployment	Rails framework limits the choice of the deployment servers to be used with a number of features and libraries.